Dear Rhys,

I am writing in response to WQ92278: What consideration has the Minister given to adopting regulations on artificial intelligence in the workplace, in light of the passing of the EU's Artificial Intelligence Act?

AI Regulation is a reserved matter. The Welsh Government, however, recognises that the EU's Artificial Intelligence Act may impact businesses based in Wales delivering AI tools or services to the EU. We support the need for regulation, alongside standards, governance and assurance mechanisms.

I shall be making a statement in the coming weeks.

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy Miles AS/MS
